CHICAGO—Back in Chicago for a week of meeting constituents, U.S. Representative Mike Quigley (IL-05) got his hands dirty at Graymills Manufacturing and visited a band classroom at Bateman Elementary School. Quigley visited Graymills on the North Side to get a closer look at the ins-and-outs of the small business, and continued his Undercover Congressman program by helping to assemble a few industrial pumps. Later in the week, Quigley visited a school band rehearsal at Bateman School, who – with the Congressman's support – received a federal grant through the North River After School Collaborative.

Quigley continued his Undercover Congressman program at Graymills Manufacturing on Lincoln Avenue. where he assembled industrial pumps.

Masonic hospital Advocate Illinois