

CHICAGO—On New Year's Eve, Rep. Mike Quigley (D-IL) joined the cast and co-hosted a benefit production of "A Christmas Carol" at the Goodman Theatre for Chicago-area servicemen and women and their families. Senator Richard Durbin (D-IL) and Rep. Jan Schakowsky co-hosted the "Community Day" event with the Goodman Theatre and the USO. Quigley and Schakowsky both appeared in walk-on roles during several scenes in the performance.

Rep. Mike Quigley (center) onstage during a scene from Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" at the Goodman Theatre, with Rep. Jan Schakowsky to his stage-left.

graham@brn

Additional photos are available on Flickr. Click here to view them. please click here to view them.