Congress at Your Company

In order to best represent you, I'd like to understand what a day in your life really entails. I've helped deliver the mail with the USPS, installed a new water main with the City, made french fries at Superdawg, and listened to employees in lunchrooms across the district. If you would like me to go "undercover" with you, please contact our District Office. We will do our best to honor as many requests as possible as scheduling permits.
